

Why They Are Thankful.

Mahan & McAfee—

Thankful for our increase in business.

G. B. Hawkins—

I am thankful for the liberal patronage the good people of Anderson county have seen fit to give us during the past year.

D. T. McCarty—

I will be more thankful when the City Council builds a work-house to hold the law-breakers.

A. C. Witherspoon—

Thankful that we are holding our own.

J. W. Shouse—

Thankful that I am still alive, and will be found at the same old stand with the best line of dress goods in town.

H. S. Carl—

I'm thankful that I have not been forced to patronize myself in the coffin line.

Geo. W. Hutcheson—

I'm thankful that we have such a good chance to get a government building, that we may have a better and more convenient place of business.

J. P. McWilliams—

I'm thankful that I was mayor of the city when the brick streets were put in and water-works and electric lights voted for.

Sam King—

Most thankful that it was Ottenheimer, and not me, who had to walk home from the Tyrone wreck Tuesday night.

J. R. Paxton—

I would be more thankful if all the people would come forward and pay their taxes.

J. M. Johnson—

I am, but I'm not.

J. W. Waterfill—

Thankful that we will get to close up our store to eat turkey.

Dr. C. A. Leathers—

I would be thankful if druggists could close up to-day and eat turkey.

E. E. Spencer—

I'm thankful that it is turning cold. I'm in the coal business, you know.

Isaac Hirsch—

Thankful that we have not closed out yet.

E. V. Johnson—

Thankful that the weather man promised us good weather, although I have but little faith in the gentleman.

W. H. Morgan—

I'm most thankful that Old Anderson is now out of debt.

W. Y. Spencer—

I'm thankful for the patronage I am receiving.

John S. Odell—

Depends upon my old woman has to eat when I go home.

J. C. Vanarsdell—

I'm thankful for the large business we have done during the past year.

Fred Hartman—

I'm thankful that John Farlee has invited me to dinner.

H. S. Wise—

I'm thankful for anything I can get.

R. H. Witherspoon—

I'm thanking God that it's no worse.

T. J. Ballard—

I'm thankful that I have on display the most complete line of miscellaneous holiday goods ever in the city.

HERE AND THERE.

Mr. Gelon McGinnis, who has for some time been employed as clerk at Trent's grocery, has accepted a position with the Lawrenceburg Drug Co.

Mrs. Eddie Snyder and Mrs. Scott Chowning and daughters, Misses Ora and Dot, of Chajlin, spent several days last week with the former's father, Mr. Jackson Holmes, in Lanawee.
